

Instructions for working alarm

To turn your alarm on in Away mode (Everyone leaving the house)

If you are leaving the house press and hold the 'AWAY ARM' button for about three seconds until the red armed light comes on.

Exit the premises within the allowed time the alarm will beep during the exit time.

To turn your alarm on in stay mode (Bed Time Mode)

If you are staying in the house and going to bed press and hold the 'STAY ARM' button for about three seconds until the red armed light comes on. Only the sensors set for "stay arm" will turn on.

Now you may go to bed you still have the same exit time but the alarm will not beep.

REMEMBER TO TURN IT OFF IN THE MORNING.

To turn your alarm off

When you come into the premises or you are getting up in the morning enter your 4 digit code into the keypad.

The red light will go out and the alarm is now off.

Fire Panic

Hold down the Fire panic button for three seconds the sirens will sound. Enter your code to stop siren.

Medical Panic (Monitored systems only)

Hold down the Medical panic button for three seconds the Keypad will beep three short beeps and a Medical signal will be sent to the monitoring station. The siren will not sound.

Panic button

Hold down the panic button for three seconds the sirens will sound. Enter your code to stop siren.

Smoke detectors (if installed)

If your smoke detector is activated enter you 4-digit code to stop the main alarm sirens the smoke detector will continue to sound, as it needs to be reset. Clear the smoke and press and hold the smoke reset key for three seconds. The smoke detector will stop and reset back to normal operation.

The alarm cannot be used if the smoke detectors are not fully operational.

